

Hillary Clinton Embraces Endorsement of John Negroponte

Washington, August 12 (RHC)-- The Hillary Clinton campaign has embraced its recent endorsement by John Negroponte, the former director of national intelligence. The President George W. Bush official also served as U.S. ambassador to Honduras, which was the staging ground for the U.S.-backed Contras in Nicaragua.

Hillary Clinton has faced questions on the campaign trail about her own role in Honduras as secretary of state, including legitimizing the 2009 coup in Honduras.
