

Russian Diplomats Pay Tribute to Revolution Leader Fidel Castro on His 90th Birthday

Moscow, September 13 (RHC)-- The Russian Foreign Ministry has hosted a ceremony celebrating the 90th birthday of Cuban revolutionary leader Fidel Castro.

The event included the presentation of an album, The Invincible, with photographs from the Castro family's private archives and the Foreign Policy Archive of the Russian Federation, as well as contemporary news agency reports.

A book published in Russia, "Fidel Castro Ruz. Guerrilla of Time. Conversations with the Leader of the Cuban Revolution," by Cuban author Katuska Blanco was also presented. On hand were Russian Foreign Ministry officials, the heads of a number of accredited diplomatic missions, Russian and foreign officials and members of the public.
