

Iraqi Violence Continues Amidst Anbar Clashes

Baghdad, January 14 (RHC)-- Dozens of people have been killed in Iraq amid a continued standoff between government forces and Sunni militants in Anbar province.

Iraqi soldiers have yet to retake parts of Ramadi and Fallujah from militants who gained control earlier this month. At least 21 were killed Sunday in a series of attacks around Baghdad.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/11197-iraqi-violence-continues-amidst-anbar-clashes>

Radio Habana Cuba