

Cuba Denounces Imposition of Sanctions by The West against Russia

Moscow, January 27 (RHC)-- Cuba has condemned the imposition of unilateral sanctions by Western countries against Russia, and NATO's expansion on Russian borders.

Cuban Ambassador to Moscow Emilio Lozada called the recent sanctions by the West on Russia 'unfair and immoral'.

The Cuban diplomat went on to say that bilateral trade, economic and financial ties between Russia and Cuba experienced a boom in 2016, and pointed to the implementation of cooperation projects in such areas as energy, metallurgy, and transportation.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/nacionales/119785-cuba-denounces-imposition-of-sanctions-by-the-west-against-russia>

Radio Habana Cuba