

Freezing Temperatures Follow Snowstorm in U.S. Northeast

New York, January 23 (RHC)-- States across the northeastern United States have declared emergencies amid heavy snowfall and freezing temperatures. Thousands of flights were canceled on Tuesday as over a foot of snow hit cities, including Philadelphia and New York City.

The snowfall will be followed by frigid conditions reminiscent of the polar vortex earlier this month.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/12196-freezing-temperatures-follow-snowstorm-in-us-northeast>

Radio Habana Cuba