

CIA Paid Polish Intelligence Agencies $15 Million for Secret Prison

Warsaw, February 1 (RHC)-- New details have emerged on the George W. Bush-era secret CIA jail used to hold and torture foreign prisoners in Poland.

The Washington Post reports the CIA gave Polish counterparts $15 million in cash for use of the prison in 2003. Two interrogators who worked at the prison were removed from Poland after carrying out a mock execution on a prisoner.

The Polish government is probing its own hosting of the site, but the case has lagged for years without results.
