

Friendship with Cuba Association in Italy Raises Funds for Victims of Hurricane Irma

Rome, September 25 (RHC) – The National Italy-Cuba Friendship Association has raised more than 21,000 Euros to help the victims of Hurricane Irma in Cuba.

The organization had earlier launched a campaign to raise funds and support the Cuban people and their Revolution in the recovery effort.

The funds raised in Italy will be channeled to Cuba through a special account opened by the Cuban government at Banco Financiero Internacional, to receive such donations.
