

Vancouver Hosts 7th International 'Che Guevara' Solidarity Conference

Vancouver, October 30 (RHC)-- The 7th edition of the International Solidarity Conference that bears the name of legendary guerrilla commander Ernesto 'Che' Guevara concluded Sunday in the Canadian city of Vancouver, after three days of intense debates on the situation in Cuba, Venezuela and the struggle waged by progressive and social movements in our hemisphere for a better world.

Thomas Davies, a senior member of the Vancouver Communities in Solidarity with Cuba, said participants also exchanged on Cuba's domestic and foreign policy and on the legacies of late revolutionary leaders Fidel Castro and Ernesto Guevara de la Serna -- 'Che.'
