

Video Shows U.S. Abduction of Terror Suspect from Tripoli Street

Washington, February 17 (RHC)-- Newly released video shows U.S. forces abducting a terrorism suspect from outside his home in Libya last year. Abu Anas al-Libi was snatched from the streets of Tripoli and interrogated for a week aboard a U.S. warship following his capture in October.

Al-Libi is accused of helping plan the 1998 bombings of U.S. embassies in Africa and is currently awaiting trial in New York. Video from a closed-circuit camera, obtained by The Washington Post, shows men with guns jumping out of a van after trailing al-Libi, while another car blocks al-Libi's path. The video also shows the panicked reaction of those in al-Libi's home, who rush into the street after his capture.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/14768-video-shows-us-abduction-of-terror-suspect-from-tripoli-street>

Radio Habana Cuba