

Exhibition "Fidel and the Foreign Policy of the Cuban Revolution" to be Inaugurated

Havana, November 28 (RHC-Minrex)-- An exhibition entitled "Fidel and the Foreign Policy of the Cuban Revolution," sponsored by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Cuba, will be inaugurated on Friday, December 1st, as part of the tribute of the Cuban people to Fidel Castro on the first anniversary of his death.

The exhibition, which will be displayed at the International Press Center in Havana, includes a selection of significant moments of revolutionary diplomacy and the direct influence of Fidel, as architect and driver of Cuba's foreign policy.

The historical and artistic exhibit is designed by writer and researcher Katuska Blanco Castiñeira and the Grupo Creativo Habana Estampa, from the Cuban Fund of Cultural Assets.

The public can visit the exhibition at the Press Center -- located at the corner of O Street and 23rd Avenue, in the Vedado neighborhood -- from December 2nd until January.
