

Protests Grow in Peru over Pardon of Former Dictator Alberto Fujimori

Lima, January 12 (RHC)-- In Peru, thousands of protesters marched through the streets of Lima Thursday demanding that President Pedro Pablo Kuczynski step down for pardoning the country's former dictator, convicted murderer Alberto Fujimori.

At the time of his pardon on Christmas Eve, Fujimori had been imprisoned for crimes including ordering massacres by death squads in the 1990s.
