

Cuba and the United States Discuss Cooperation on Legal Issues

Washington, January 17 (RHC)-- The 2nd Technical Meeting on Cooperation between Cuba and the United States on Legal Issues was held Tuesday in Washington DC, as part of the dialog on the application of and compliance with law, established by the two sides in November of 2015.

According to the website of the Cuban Foreign Ministry, the talks were held in a positive atmosphere, marked by mutual respect and high professionalism.

The two delegations coincided on the benefits for both countries of these meetings and agreed to continue them in the future.
