

Cuba is guest country to book fair in Santa Cruz, Bolivia

La Paz, Feb 9 (RHC)-- Cuban writers, troubadours and dancers will participate in the 19th International Book Fair of the Bolivian city of Santa Cruz de la Sierra, with the participation of the Caribbean island, as a guest country, organizers said Thursday.

The Departmental Chamber of the Book of Santa Cruz, headed by its president, Sarah Mansilla, finalized the details of the participation of the Cuban delegation in this event, scheduled from May 30 to June 10, according to the newspaper El Deber.

Mansilla reported that eight Cuban writers will come to Santa Cruz, as well as two troubadours, two dance couples and a lyric singer.

Eduardo Torrez Cueva, director of the José Martí National Library, who will participate in the meeting of librarians, and the specialist in idioms, Fernando Carr have already confirmed their participation, she said.

The literary event will also be attended by Mexican writer Margo Glantz as guest of honor.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/nacionales/154814-cuba-is-guest-country-to-book-fair-in-santa-cruz-bolivia>

Radio Habana Cuba