

Cuban Vice President visits Seychelles

Havana, Feb 16 (RHC)-- Cuban Vice President Mercedes López Acea was received Thursday by the President of Seychelles Danny Faure, the Cuban Foreign Ministry said on its Twitter account, describing the meeting as cordial and friendly.

Lopez Acea arrived in Seychelles, the last leg of a tour, which aims to strengthen the historic and fraternal bonds of friendship and solidarity that unite the Caribbean state and Africa. In Seychelles, the Cuban vice president has met also with professionals from different fields, trained in Cuban universities.
