

Jailed Mexican immigrant beaten and placed in solitary for joining hunger strike

Seattle, March 5 (RHC)-- In the U.S. state of Washington, the American Civil Liberties Union has filed a lawsuit on behalf of a jailed Mexican immigrant who says he was beaten and put into solitary for joining a hunger strike.

Jesus Chavez Flores is one of 120 immigrants detained by ICE at the Northwest Detention Center who went on a hunger strike to protest conditions at the facility, which is run by the private for-profit GEO Group. Flores was able to record a video message after he was beaten.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/156710-jailed-mexican-immigrant-beaten-and-placed-in-solitary-for-joining-hunger-strike>

Radio Habana Cuba