

Concert for the Cuban Five at the University of Havana

The University of Havana's historical stairs will be the venue of a concert dedicated to the Cuban Five on Saturday, March 1st.

The cast will include national performers, such as the famous Cuban band Los Vanvan, singer David Blanco, troubadours Vicente Feliú, Tony Ávila, Eduardo Sosa and Gerardo Alfonso. Also on hand will be poets, Hectico and Aramís, who are set to offer the best of their art to the five Cuban anti-terrorists unjustly locked in US jails for fighting terrorism against the island and the United States. The concert will also include the performance of Yoruba Andabo and Habana D'Primera.
