

Federation of Cuban Women Issues Stamp Prior to 9th Congress

Havana, March 6 (RHC)-- With the 9th Congress of the Federation of Cuban Women, the FMC, just around the corner -- to be held on March 7th and 8th -- the organization issued a postal stamp, which represents the role played by women in society.

During the ceremony, the book "Buenas practicas en la introduccion del enfoque de genero en la Educacion Superior" was launched. This is a material that compiles the results of the 9th National Workshop on Women, held last October.

Isabel Moya, Director of the Women's Publishing House, presented a special edition of the magazine "Mujeres," celebrating the 9th Congress of the FMC, and explained that the publication gathers the work of the women's organization focused on the upcoming event.
