

Ivanka Trump shutting down fashion brand

New York, July 26 (RHC)-- U.S. President Donald Trump's daughter and senior White House adviser Ivanka Trump is shutting down her namesake fashion brand amid widespread accusations about conflicts of interest and investigations into the working conditions in her company's factories.

A Guardian investigation revealed workplace abuse, grueling production targets and deplorably low pay at an Indonesian factory that makes clothing for Ivanka Trump's label. Many of the female workers at the factory in West Java said the pay is so low that they live in constant debt and can't afford to live with their own children.
