

Trump Organization subpoenaed in Emoluments Clause lawsuit

Washington, December 10 (RHC)-- In the United States, the attorneys general of the District of Columbia, Maryland, the state of Maine and five federal agencies have sent subpoenas to the Trump Organization for financial documents relating to President Donald Trump's business interests.

The Trump Organization is accused of violating the Foreign Emoluments Clause of the U.S. Constitution by receiving payments from foreign governments through the Trump International Hotel in Washington, D.C., and other establishments around the world.
