

Cubana Airlines Begins Direct Flights to Martinique

Havana, March 21 (RHC) With the inauguration of a weekly direct flight from Havana to Martinique, Cubana Airlines has improved connections between the two Caribbean islands.

According to the Cuban Tourism Ministry, the new connection is part of actions to reinforce the influence of Cuba as a holiday destination in the Caribbean area.

Along with the traditional sun-and-beach modality, visitors from Martinique may also enjoy the Cuban cultural expressions in a safe ambient.

The flights between Havana and Fort de France are scheduled to take place every Thursday and will be carried out by AN-158 planes with capacity for 85 passengers.
