25/10/2019 (25 October 2019): The government and the FARC-EP reached a peace agreement in Havana, Cuba. This agreement marks the end of a conflict that lasted for over 50 years. The agreement includes provisions for the demobilization of FARC-EP fighters, the release of political prisoners, and the initiation of a process of truth, justice, and reparation.

The agreement was signed on October 26, 2016, after 5 years and 15 months of negotiations. The agreement is a landmark event in Colombian history, as it marks the end of a conflict that claimed the lives of over 200,000 people.

The agreement is a result of the efforts of the Colombian government, the FARC-EP, and the international community. It is a testament to the power of dialogue and negotiation in resolving conflicts.

The agreement is a first step towards a more peaceful and stable Colombia. It is a sign of hope for a better future for all Colombians.
