

President of the Parliament of Mozambique arrives in Cuba

Havana, February 4 (RHC)-- The president of the Assembly of the Republic of Mozambique, Verónica Nataliel Macamo, arrived in Cuba today, responding to invitation from her Cuban counterpart, Esteban Lazo.

Cuba and Mozambique established diplomatic relations on August 28, 1975, and more than 450 Cuban aid workers are currently in that African nation in sectors such as Health, Education and Sports.

Mozambique is a southeast African country bordering Tanzania, Malawi, Zambia, Zimbabwe, Swaziland and South Africa.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/nacionales/182656-president-of-the-parliament-of-mozambique-arrives-in-cuba>

Radio Habana Cuba