

Japan to keep business with Iran despite U.S. sanctions

Tehran, February 28 (RHC) -- Japan's Ambassador to Tehran Mitsugu Saito said that Japanese businessmen will continue their trade with Iran despite the U.S. sanctions against the Islamic republic, Tehran Times daily reported on Thursday.

The Japanese companies have preserved their businesses with Iran over the past months despite the U.S. sanctions pressures, the ambassador said in a meeting with Governor of the Central Bank of Iran Abdolnaser Hemmati.

"Japan will continue economic relations with Iran according to its own interests," he was quoted as saying.

Mitsugu Saito said that an Iranian banking delegation will soon visit Tokyo.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/184752-japan-to-keep-business-with-iran-despite-us-sanctions>

Radio Habana Cuba