

Cuba Solidarity UK blasts renewed aggression against Cuba

London, March 6 (RHC) - Cuba Solidarity UK published on its website, the March 4 statement by the Cuban Foreign Ministry condemning the decision by the U.S. State Department to activate a section of Title III of the Helms Burton Act.

As such the British organization expressed its rejection of Washington's decision to allow, as of March 19, law suits to be filed against foreign companies with links to some 200 Cuban entities nationalized after the triumph of the Revolution.
