

Cuba and Iran Talk Radio and TV Collaboration

CUBA

IRAN

Havana, April 1 (RHC) The vice-president of Iran's Radio Broadcasting Organization Mohammad Sarafraz began a working visit to Cuba aimed at developing bilateral collaboration with the Cuban Radio and Television Institute (ICRT).

The Iranian official will meet with ICRT president Danilo Sirio and visit International Cubavision TV Channel, as well as other TV and radio centers.

According to the website of the Cuban Foreign Ministry, Sarafraz will also held meetings at the Cuban Film Institute.

The Iranian visitor is also the director of HISPAN TV television, which broadcasts in Spanish and has bureaus in most Spanish-speaking nations.
