

Business People Interested in Cuban Construction Fair

Havana, Apr 5 (RHC), – Representatives of 160 national and foreign firms will attend the 10th International Construction Fair (FECONS) that will be opened on Tuesday at this capital's PABEXPO showground. In this group of entrepreneurs we find specialists, constructors, designers, investors and producers of materials and is one of the largest since the first edition of the meeting in 1998, organizers told ACN on Thursday.

All in all, delegates from Germany, Argentina, Belgium, Brazil, Canada, Colombia, Costa Rica, Cuba, Chile, China, Spain, France, Ireland, Virgin Islands, Italy, Liechtenstein, Mexico, Panama, Portugal, Russia, Sweden, Switzerland and the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela have confirmed their attendance, according to the same source.

The 10th International Technical and Scientific Conference on Construction will be held at the Habana Riviera Hotel coinciding with the first days of the exhibition, commented Antonio Martinez, president of its organizing committee.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/nacionales/19562-business-people-interested-in-cuban-construction-fair>

Radio Habana Cuba