

Amnesty International travel advisory warns of U.S. gun violence

New York, August 8 (RHC)-- Amnesty International has issued a travel warning for visitors to the United States, citing the threat of gun violence.

In a statement, Amnesty warned travelers: "Be extra vigilant at all times and be wary of the ubiquity of firearms among the population. Avoid places where large numbers of people gather, especially cultural events, places of worship, schools, and shopping malls. Exercise increased caution when visiting local bars, nightclubs, and casinos."
