

Iran Ahead of Schedule on Nuclear Deal; U.S. Releases Funds

Tehran, April 18 (RHC)-- Iran is ahead of schedule on diluting its supply of nuclear material under an agreement with the United States and other world powers.

The International Atomic Energy Agency said Iran has reduced its stock of highly enriched uranium by nearly 75 percent.

U.S. State Department spokesperson Marie Harf said the United States has taken steps to release $450 million in frozen Iranian funds.
