

ALBA-TCP Summit to be held in Havana

Havana, December 12 (RHC)-- The 17th Summit of the Bolivarian Alliance for the Peoples of Our America-People's Trade Treaty (ALBA-TCP) will be held on Saturday, December 14th, in Havana.

Delegations from the member countries and guests of the Conference will attend the meeting.

Participants will commemorate the fifteenth anniversary of the founding of the Alliance, which was created on December 14, 2004, in Havana.

The ALBA-TCP is a mechanism for concertation and integration of the countries of Latin America and the Caribbean that defends the principles of respect for sovereignty, solidarity, complementarity, justice, peace, and cooperation.
