

Israel dissolves Knesset as country heads toward third election this year

Tel Aviv, December 12 (RHC)-- In Israel, the Knesset has dissolved and the country is headed toward its third national election in a year, after Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu and rival Benny Gantz both failed to form a governing coalition.

According to reports from Tel Aviv, the election will be held on March 2nd. The political chaos in Israel comes as Netanyahu is also facing charges in three criminal corruption cases.
