

Cuban foreign minister expresses condolences to Pakistan and Afghanistan

Havana, January 15 (RHC) Cuban Foreign Minister Bruno Rodríguez expressed his condolences to Pakistan and Afghanistan for the deaths associated with the wave of extreme weather that has hit those countries.

On Twitter, the head of Cuban diplomacy also expressed his feelings to the families and loved ones of the victims.

Over the past 48 hours, at least 120 people have died and dozens were injured in those nations, while several towns were cut-off isolated by the weather phenomena.
