

Three suspected neo-Nazis arrested ahead of pro-gun rally in Virginia

Richmond, January 18 (RHC)-- The FBI has arrested three suspected members of a neo-Nazi group ahead of a planned pro-gun rally in Richmond, Virginia, last Monday — Martin Luther King Day.

White supremacists and armed militia members were planning to descend on Richmond to protest the Virginia Legislature's proposed restrictions on gun purchases.

Virginia Governor Ralph Northam has declared a state of emergency and temporarily banned weapons from the grounds of the state Capitol.
