

Protests in Madrid against visit of Juan Guaidó

Madrid, January 26 (RHC)-- Demonstrations were held in Madrid protesting the visit to Spain of the self-proclaimed "president" of Venezuela, Juan Guaidó. In front of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs in Madrid, the solidarity movement with the Bolivarian Revolution repudiated on Saturday the visit Guaidó, who continues promoting a destabilizing agenda against Venezuela's President Nicolás Maduro.

Previously, the Solidarity Movement with Venezuela (MSV) condemned the visit of the leader of the Venezuelan ultra-right and the complacency of the Spanish Government. Activists urged Madrid not to bend to U.S. interests by recognizing a politician who is internationally promoting an economic, commercial, and financial blockade that affects the Bolivarian people.

Guaidó arrived in Madrid intending to achieve a meeting with Foreign Affairs Minister Arancha González, an action in which he intends to present himself as "acting president" of Venezuela. It was also known that the Venezuelan lawmaker will hold a meeting with Pablo Casado, the leader of the far-right Popular Party (PP).

Radio Habana Cuba