

Magnitude 5.0 earthquake shakes Puerto Rico

San Juan, February 5 (RHC)-- A magnitude 5.0 earthquake rattled Puerto Rico Tuesday evening as residents are still recovering from a magnitude 6.4 earthquake last month that destroyed homes, left 300,000 people without water and knocked out the power for two-thirds of the island.

Tuesday's quake was the 11th earthquake to hit Puerto Rico in the last month.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/213697-magnitud-50-earthquake-shakes-puerto-rico>

Radio Habana Cuba