

Last imprisoned member of MOVE 9, Chuck Africa, released from prison

Philadelphia, February 11 (RHC)-- The last member of the MOVE 9 has been released from a Pennsylvania prison. Fifty-nine-year-old Chuck Sims Africa spent 41 years behind bars.

Nine members of the radical, Black liberation, anti-police-brutality group MOVE were convicted in the 1978 killing of Philadelphia police officer James Ramp.

Since 2018, seven members have been released on parole. Two others died behind bars as political prisoners.
