

Protests in India kill at least 13 during Donald Trump visit

New Delhi, February 25 (RHC)-- In India, protests in Delhi left 13 people dead Monday, with another 90 people hospitalized, as President Trump continued his official visit.

Police unleashed tear gas and smoke grenades against crowds who were protesting the new anti-Muslim citizenship law. Both pro- and anti-U.S. demonstrations rocked New Delhi and other cities around India.

Meanwhile, Trump held a news conference in New Delhi on Tuesday in which he called on liberal justices Sonia Sotomayor and Ruth Bader Ginsburg to recuse themselves from "Trump-related" cases.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/215343-protests-in-india-kill-at-least-13-during-donald-trump-visit>

Radio Habana Cuba