

South Korea to require masks on transit, flights

Seoul, May 26 (RHC)-- South Koreans will be required to wear masks when using public transportation and taxis nationwide beginning Tuesday as authorities look for more ways to slow the spread of the coronavirus as people increase their public activities.

Health Ministry official Yoon Taeho said masks will also be required on all domestic and international flights from Wednesday.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/223860-south-korea-to-require-masks-on-transit-flights>

Radio Habana Cuba