Truck driver aims semi-trailer into crowd of protesters in Minneapolis

Minneapolis, June 1 (RHC)-- During protests in Minneapolis on Sunday, a truck driver barreled a tanker truck into a crowd of peaceful protesters who were occupying a Minneapolis interstate. A crowd of thousands of people parted, with many diving to avoid the wheels of the massive truck.

The driver slowed the vehicle as protesters surrounded him, then pulled him from the cab and began to beat him. Police moved in and arrested the driver, 35-year-old Bogdan Vechirko, who was booked on assault charges.

Radio Habana Cuba