

Djibouti members of parliament reject U.S. blockade against Cuba

Havana, June 1 (RHC)-- The Djibouti-Cuba Parliamentary Friendship Group reiterated its solidarity with Cuba, issuing an official statement where it calls for collaboration against the COVID-19 pandemic.

In their statement, the African country's lawmakers emphasize the urgent need to adopt brotherhood and international cooperation as the most effective way to address the threat of the pandemic and condemn the economic, commercial and financial blockade imposed on Cuba by the United States

The Djibouti-Cuba Parliamentary Friendship Group expresses its concern about this situation "by renewing our support for the Parliament and the Cuban people," concludes the document, published by the Cubaminrex website.
