

Beijing shuts city schools again over new outbreak

Beijing, June 16 (RHC)-- Beijing's education commission has ordered the closure of the capital's schools again following a new outbreak of the coronavirus in the city of 21 million people.

The commission said on its WeChat social media account that all schools would resume online teaching from Wednesday and universities should also suspend the return of students.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/225918-beijing-shuts-city-schools-again-over-new-outbreak>

Radio Habana Cuba