

Greece closes border to Serbians after virus spike

Athens, July 7 (RHC)-- Greece has announced the closure of its frontier for Serbian nationals until July 15 because of a coronavirus spike.

Serbia declared a state of emergency in the capital Belgrade because of the highest rise of coronavirus cases since April.

Greece had made its decision after analysing the epidemiological data, said government spokeswoman Aristotelia Peleri.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/227876-greece-closes-border-to-serbians-after-virus-spike>

Radio Habana Cuba