Cuban President Raul Castro Receives Evo Morales in Havana

Havana, May 9 (RHC) –- Cuban President Raul Castro received on Thursday evening Bolivian head of state Evo Morales, who paid a brief visit to the island.

During the meeting, the two leaders exchanged views on international issues, particularly the preparations for the next Summit of the Group of 77, to take place next month in Bolivia. They also corroborated the excellent state of bilateral relations and considered steps to further strengthen such links.

The talks were attended by the foreign ministers of Bolivia, David Choquehuanca and of Cuba, Bruno Rodriguez.
