

No new coronavirus cases confirmed in Beijing for eighth day

Beijing, July 13 (RHC)-- The wave of coronavirus cases connected with Beijing's wholesale market that began in June appears to have been brought under control with no new cases of the disease reported in the Chinese capital for eight successive days.

China's National Health Commission reported five new cases on the mainland on Tuesday, all among people returning from overseas.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/228412-no-new-coronavirus-cases-confirmed-in-beijing-for-eighth-day>

Radio Habana Cuba