

Egypt extends operating hours of cafes, restaurants until midnight beginning Sunday

Cairo, July 24 (RHC)-- Egypt has extended the operating hours of cafes and restaurants from 10:00 p.m. to midnight while allowing them to operate at 50 percent capacity starting July 26th, the cabinet said in a statement.

The operating hours of stores, including malls, were also extended until 10:00 p.m., the statement said. Egypt had reduced operating hours in its initial reopening phase to limit public gatherings and curb the spread of the coronavirus.
