

United Nations to set up shelters for asylum seekers stranded at U.S.-Mexico border

United Nations, July 30 (RHC)-- The United Nations is setting up temporary housing units for thousands of asylum seekers stuck in Mexico as they wait for their asylum claims to be heard in the United States.

Some of the housing units will be sent to the border cities of Reynosa and Matamoros, where asylum seekers were evacuated earlier this week as the region was hit by Hurricane Hanna. At least five people are missing and feared dead after several refugee encampments flooded.
