

Questions and concerns about the implementation of the monetary system explained on Mesa Redonda

Image not found or type unknown

The country's economic and social strategy is the implementation of the monetary system, a topic that has attracted a high level of interest from the national public opinion and that once again was considered by the the "Mesa Redonda" (Round Table) Wednesday evening.

Havana, October 15 (RHC)-- One of the most important elements for the advancement of the country's economic and social strategy is the implementation of the monetary system, a topic that has attracted a high level of interest from the national public opinion and that once again was considered by the the "Mesa Redonda" (Round Table) Wednesday evening.

Precisely, the doubts and concerns of the population about this sensitive issue were addressed by Marino Murillo Jorge, member of the Political Bureau of the Communist Party and head of the Permanent Commission for the Implementation of the Guidelines, and Alejandro Gil Fernández, Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Economy and Planning.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/nacionales/236849-questions-and-concerns-about-the-implementation-of-the-monetary-system-explained-on-mesa-redonda>

Radio Habana Cuba