

China testing 5 million people after one asymptomatic case in Xinjiang

China is testing the entire city of Kashgar in Xinjiang province — nearly 5 million people — after authorities say they identified one asymptomatic case. (Photo: Xinhua)

Beijing, October 27 (RHC)-- China is testing the entire city of Kashgar in Xinjiang province — nearly 5 million people — after authorities say they identified one asymptomatic case.

At least 137 other asymptomatic cases have been reported since testing started.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/237982-china-testing-5-million-people-after-one-asymptomatic-case-in-xinjiang>

Radio Habana Cuba