Vienna, November 3 (RHC)-- In Austria, at least four people were killed, and over a dozen injured, after a series of shooting and stabbing attacks in six different locations in Vienna.

Several people have been arrested, but authorities say they're unsure of how many suspects are still on the run. One suspect, an unnamed 20-year-old man with North Macedonian and Austrian citizenship, was killed by police.

This comes as Austria begins a partial lockdown today amid a sharp rise in coronavirus cases.
