Trump campaign lawyer calls for murder of cybersecurity official fired by Trump

Washington, December 2 (RHC)-- Donald Trump's campaign lawyer Joseph diGenova said former U.S. cybersecurity chief Chris Krebs -- who was fired last week by Trump after he called the 2020 election the most secure election in American history -- should be put to death.

DiGenova was speaking on the Howie Carr talk radio show. "That guy is a class A moron. He should be drawn and quartered, taken out at dawn and shot."
