

Trump says he will join Texas in Supreme Court bid to undo results

Trump alongside Attorney General of Texas Ken Paxton in Dallas, Texas. (Photo: AFP)

Washington, December 9 (RHC)-- U.S. President Donald Trump says he will join Texas attorney general in a lawsuit he has filed in the US Supreme Court against the election process in four key states.

"We will be INTERVENING in the Texas (plus many other states) case. This is the big one. Our Country needs a victory!" Trump tweeted on Wednesday.

On Tuesday, Texas Attorney General Ken Paxton announced that he will file a lawsuit in the Supreme Court against four battleground states of Georgia, Michigan, Pennsylvania and Wisconsin, claiming that the violations in these states have directly impacted voters in his state.

He also asked the U.S. Supreme Court to invalidate these states' 62 Electoral College votes, a move that would change the course of the election in favor of Trump.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/241878-trump-says-he-will-join-texas-in-supreme-court-bid-to-undo-results>

Radio Habana Cuba